

IN ARGUMENT COURT.

Jacob Saylor's Attorney Wants a New Trial Granted.

CONNELLVILLE EQUITY CASE.

In Which a Contracting Firm Hold a Judgment Against Mrs. Susan McGary for $1000—An Order Made for June Grand and Petit Jurors.

Uniontown, April 9.—At the session of court Wednesday attorneys Cooper and Van Swearingen presented an affidavit of non-compliance by defendants to the order of court made March 20 in the equity suit between the Jeanette Glass company, limited, of Point Marion, and the State Line Natural Gas company of the same place. This statement was sworn to by Jules J. Quertlump, chairman of the plaintiff company, and William P. Sidwell, yard master. The order of court, which has gone unheeded so far, directed the gas company to issue notices to its customers forbidding the use of gas pumps, blowers, or any other artificial means to extract gas from the mains. Notice was to be served upon the Federated Glass company of that place within 48 hours from the time the order of court was made and then if they persisted in such measures the gas was to be turned off. The Jeanette company allege that the Federated company still employs the artificial means to get gas and that at no time has the supply been shut off. The former company also alleges that present arrangements work them many hardships. A rule was granted on the defendants to show cause why an attachment should not be issued against them for non-compliance with the order of March 20. It was made returnable April 11 at 10 o'clock.

In the case of Calhoun & Co. of Connellville against Mrs. Susan McGary of the same place, a petition was presented to court Wednesday afternoon on behalf of defendant and a rule granted on plaintiff to show cause why the execution now in the hands of the sheriff should not be stayed and the defendant let into a defense against the same. It is returnable April 27, 1903. In September, 1899, judgment was entered against Mrs. McGary for $1000, the note bearing date of April 10, 1899, and payable in 30 days. June 27, 1900, she paid $1000. March 6, 1902, an execution was issued for the remainder, which now amounts to about $200. The note was given for building a house, erecting walks about the yard, etc. Since giving the note the defendant alleges that she has discovered that the house was carelessly and negligently located upon the lot and that plaintiffs failed to leave three feet on the east side for an alley for entrance, as they were to do. Because of this neglect she says she will be obliged to buy three feet from a neighbor if she can induce him to sell, but the least figure for which she can buy it now is $200.

Attorney R. P. Kennedy argued for a new trial Wednesday in the case of Jacob Saylor, who was convicted at March court of complicity in the robbery of the armory of Company D, Connellville, a few months ago. Mr. Kennedy argued at some length, his argument being based on the reason assigned at the time a motion for a new trial was made, and which were published verbatim in these columns at the time. The principal points were that the evidence did not warrant a conviction, that one or two of the jurors were disqualified and that the court erred in charging the jury, etc.

In the orphans' court Attorney R. F. Hopwood presented a petition on behalf of Carl H. Osborne, minor child of Frances Osborne, deceased, for the confirmation of the sale of certain real estate, the property of the child's uncle, John W. Freeman, late of Uniontown, but to which she was an heir. Petition was allowed, bond to be given in the sum of $7000. Charles L. Williams, executor of Hannah Williams, late of Nicholson township, also asked the privilege to sell real estate of decedent. This was allowed, bond $1600.

An inquest was awarded in the case of Miss Mary A. Johnson, who died in Uniontown October 15, 1902, leaving considerable property in which she was a part owner. Attorney J. C. Work, guardian of William F. Golden and Walter C. Golden, asked leave to sell certain coal property in which these minors were interested and which is located in Luzerne township. This was allowed, bond to be given in the sum of $4000.

The court has made an order directing the jury commissioners and sheriff to summon 24 grand jurors for June court, also 12 jurors for the first week and 65 for the second.

SUIT FOR INDEMNITY.

Cancel Policy. Col. F. E. Windsor recently brought suit against the Travelers' Accident Insurance company of Hartford, Conn., to recover indemnity for an accident received some months ago, and a verdict was rendered by Judge Perry in favor of the plaintiff, the defense being that the accident at company had not occurred.

Col. Windsor had been injured by a fall from a scaffold at the company's office. He had been employed by the company for some time and had been paid up to the date of the accident. The company claimed the right to cancel the policy at any time and notified the plaintiff some time after he had made final payment that they desired to refund him some of the premiums paid and cancel the policy, which the plaintiff refused to entertain, and so notified the insurance company, refusing to surrender the policy. The outcome of this matter will be highly interesting to people throughout the United States, who are now being insured by this kind of a policy and making payments thereon. Do ten payments of about double the ordinary premiums make a paid-up policy or not, and if not, what's their value?

CANADIAN COMMERCE.

Interesting Figures on Importations from Land of the Canucks. Washington, April 9.—Canadian import figures indicate that the manufactures and merchandise of the United States are popular with the people of Canada. The statistical statement of Canadian commerce, just received by the treasury bureau of statistics, covering the commerce of the 7 months ending with January, 1903, shows that Canada imported from the United States during that time 67 million dollars' worth of merchandise, against 32 million dollars' worth from the United Kingdom and 21 million dollars' worth from all other parts of the world. In other words, the United States supplied 58% of the imports of Canada in the seven months ending with January last, the United Kingdom supplied 27%, and the remaining portions of the world 15%.

This large importation from the United States by Canada is especially interesting in view of the fact that the Canadian tariff permits the introduction of products from the United Kingdom on payment of only two-thirds the duty which goods from other parts of the world, including the United States, must pay. This reduction in tariff on goods from the United Kingdom as against goods from other parts of the world was begun some four years ago and the reduction on British goods increased until it reached 33% per cent. Yet in spite of this fact the United States supplies to Canada twice as much merchandise as does the United Kingdom. In a large proportion of articles or classes of articles imported into Canada the United States supplies a larger share than does the United Kingdom. In a list of 36 principal imports into Canada, 26 show larger importations from the United States than from the United Kingdom, and 10 show larger importations from the United States than from the United Kingdom. The 19 articles in which the United Kingdom supplies a larger share of the Canadian imports than does the United States are cotton manufactures, wax and hemp manufactures, silk manufactures, wool manufactures, tin and manufactures, woolen thread, earthen and china ware, spirits and wines, tea, wool and "fancy articles."

Of the articles of which the United States furnishes a larger supply than does the United Kingdom, the principal ones are manufactures of iron and steel, wood and its manufactures, coal and coke, breadstuffs, chemicals, paper and its manufactures, and electrical apparatus.

WANT SOLDIER BOYS.

Somerset is Again After Second Brigade Encampment.

GENERAL STEWART FAVORS IT

And Erie Is the Only Other City That Is Making an Effort to Get the Encampment, Though Latrobe Is Also Considered.

Adj. Gen. Thomas J. Stewart of the National Guard of Pennsylvania has issued orders for the annual encampment of the three brigades of the Keystone soldiers. As yet the places for encamping have not been decided on, but it is likely that the Second Brigade, composed of men from Western Pennsylvania, will come to Somerset. The dates for the Second Brigade encampment are July 25 to August 1. Gen. John A. Wylie, commander of the Second brigade, is expected to go to Somerset this week. He will be accompanied by some of his staff and Capt. T. W. Griffin of the United States army, a recruiting officer. General Wylie knows all about the camp grounds there, as the Second brigade encampment was there two years ago, but he will visit the town to see what arrangements will be made if it is decided to bring the soldiers there this year. Capt. Griffin is an expert on such matters as camp sites, and all of his observations and recommendations will be given much attention.

Somerset citizens have guaranteed a fund that will meet the expenses for the "extras" that are always prominent at an encampment. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad has also promised $1000 to the fund. The citizens' committee has promised to remove all fences, fill up all post holes and gullies, lay pipe lines and to make a number of other changes that will provide an ideal camp site with a fine parade ground.

Assurances have been received from the war department that if the encampment is at Somerset there will be sent to the camp a detachment of the signal corps, a battalion of artillery and a troop of cavalry. These will come from Fort Meyer at Washington, and it is the intention to march the men over the pike from the national capital. The sending of United States soldiers to drill with militiamen is something out of the ordinary, but is an illustration of the tendency in high government circles to have a closer connection between the national and state soldiers.

If Somerset is selected the camp proper will be to the west of the Highland inn and the parade ground will be on the plateau in front of the inn. There are about 3000 men and officers in the Second brigade, and it will take about 120 cars to transport them to camp. Erie is the only place outside of Somerset that has made a strong bid for the encampment. It is argued against Erie, however, that the camp site is too near the city, and therefore the many visitors would be a nuisance at the camp. Its distance from most of the towns where the soldiers live is also against it, while the facilities for supplying the men with water are said to be very bad, although the grounds are on the lake front. There has also been some talk about locating the camp near Latrobe.

COURT-MARTIAL ORDERED.

Major Jeffers Prefers Charges Against Lieutenant Semans.

Major S. W. Jeffers has preferred charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman against Second Lieutenant Walter L. Semans of Dunbar, who is a member of Company C. The charges and specifications have been approved and forwarded to headquarters with the request that a court be appointed to hear the case. The incident that brought about the charges occurred at the inspection March 19. It is said that Major Jeffers charges Lieutenant Semans with saying that it would not do for them to meet in citizens' clothes. It is also said that Lieutenant Semans told Major Jeffers that he had been getting the worst of it for some time and that he charged Major Jeffers with political prejudice. Major Samuel W. Jeffers of Pittsburgh, inspecting officer of the Second Brigade, N. G. P., is well known in Connellville. He has inspected Company D for several years, and is well liked by local officers and men.

DRASTIC LIBEL BILL

Comes Up in Senate and Meets Rather Warm Opposition.

WOULD BE RUINOUS TO PAPERS.

House Passes Many Appropriations. Sergeant-at-Arms Presented With Official Gold Badge—Other Business Transacted.

Harrisburg, April 9.—The new Salus newspaper libel bill struck a snag in the senate when it came up on second reading. Senator Grim, after he had attacked the bill and riddled its excessive penalty clause, proposed an amendment in lieu thereof providing a fine of not less than $100. This was a test vote and resulted in the adoption of the amendment.

Senator Sprout assailed the bill from the newspaper publishers' standpoint and said that to fine a newspaper 50 cents for every copy would be ruinous and was drastic.

Later in the session the bill was again taken up, certain influences having changed the attitude of certain senators. Senator Grady proposed an amendment to the Grim amendment, making the fine not less than $500 and not more than $1,000. By a viva voce vote it was adopted.

The full text of the Salus bill is appended:

Section 1.—That from and after the passage of this act civil actions may be brought against the proprietor, owner, publisher or managing editor of any newspaper published in this commonwealth to recover damages resulting from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, publisher or managing editor in the ascertaining of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens.

Section 2.—In all civil actions which may be hereafter brought against the proprietor, owner, publisher or managing editor of any newspaper published in this commonwealth to recover damages resulting from negligence on the part of such owner, proprietor, publisher or managing editor in the ascertaining of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens, the plaintiff shall be bound to show that the publication complained of resulted from negligence on the part of the owner, proprietor or managing editor in the ascertaining of facts and in making publications affecting the character, reputation or business of citizens, as well as damages for the physical and mental suffering endured by the injured party or parties.

Section 3.—That every newspaper published in this commonwealth shall publish in every copy of every issue on the editorial page, in a conspicuous position, at the top of reading matter, the names of the owner or owners, proprietor or proprietors of any newspaper, together with the names of the managing editor or editors, and if the said newspaper or newspapers shall be owned or published by a partnership or partnerships limited, then the names of the partners or partners and managers of said partnership or partnerships limited shall be published in the manner.

Section 4.—In the event of any change being made in the proprietor, owner, publisher or managing editor of any newspaper, or in the office of president, secretary or treasurer of any corporation owning and publishing said newspaper, or any change in the names of the partners, the said change or changes shall be duly set forth in the next edition or issue of said newspaper following said change or changes.

Section 5.—Any person, firm, limited partnership or corporation publishing a newspaper in Pennsylvania which omits, fails or neglects to carry out the provisions of sections 3 and 4 of this act and make the publication required by the preceding sections, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $50 nor more than $100 for each separate copy of such newspaper proved to be issued in violation of this act.

The house bill making it a misdemeanor to expectorate on sidewalks, on the floors of public places or in railroad or railway cars, and providing a fine of not more than $1 and in default of payment of the fine five days imprisonment, was passed finally.

The following house appropriation bills were also passed finally: Todd hospital, Carlisle, $3,000; South Side hospital, Pittsburgh, $25,000; Reimann hospital, Pittsburgh, $19,000.

Mr. Berkelbach introduced a bill identical to the one introduced in the house by Mr. Curry, relating to the acquisition by corporations of gas and electric light plants owned by municipalities. It was favorably reported from committee shortly after its introduction.

At the night session of the senate the Grady-Salus newspaper libel bill was amended by adding the following at the end of the second section:

"Whenever in any such action it shall be shown that the matter complained of is libelous and that such libelous matter has been given special prominence by the use of pictures, cartoons, headlines, displayed type or any other matter calculated to specially attract attention, the jury shall have the right to award punitive damages against the defendant or defendants."

In order to add this amendment, Mr. Grady, in charge of the bill, moved to reconsider the one by which the bill passed second reading. After the new amendment was inserted the bill was laid over for printing.

CONFER ON INQUEST.

Judge Murphy and the District Attorney Settle the Course of Inquiry.

LETTERS MUST BE PRODUCED

Buffalo, April 9.—Justice Murphy and District Attorney Coatsworth held a conference on the Pennell inquest, which began at the morgue Friday. The course of the public inquiry so far as it could be discussed beforehand was settled. The inquests of Pennell and Mrs. Pennell are to be held jointly. The last known statement of Pennell in his own defense, in which he says a woman killed Burdick at midnight, is to come out. The question of suicide or accident is not to be tried out, so far as the district attorney is concerned. That part of the case will be directed by Justice Murphy. The alleged defalcations announced as equaling the total of Pennell's life insurance have nothing to do with the death of Burdick and the inquest will not be a trial of a dead man for swindling. But that which in any way may tend to throw light on the murder of Burdick is to come out.

The letters Pennell wrote, the statement he left behind, and all other papers that in any way touch upon or pertain to the affairs of Burdick are to be brought out if the authorities can get at them. Pennell detectives' reports on the shadowing of Burdick also are to come out, unless they have found their way into hands beyond the reach of the court. The facts about the trust fund or bond from Pennell to Mrs. Burdick may also come out, unless Attorney Thayer on the stand pleads his privilege as attorney for the dead man. Even then it is for the court to decide whether the plea is valid, and Justice Murphy will pass upon whether Mr. Thayer should produce the papers in his possession at the time of Pennell's death. Justice Murphy has decided to sign the subpoenas desired by District Attorney Coatsworth. These include subpoenas for Thomas Penney, attorney for the Pennell estate; Administrator Frederick Pennell; Attorney Wallace Thayer, who was Pennell's legal adviser; the witnesses to Pennell's will and certain others. The inquest probably will last two days.

It was intimated that in the event of those interested in the Pennell estate are called upon at an official inquiry to divulge any information as to Pennell's financial operations in the east an effort will be made to show that the money which he obtained from his friends and relatives was in the nature of legitimate loans. In other words, it may be asserted that funds to the amount of about $200,000 were advanced to him without any security whatever. His attorney, Wallace Thayer, admits that Pennell had no security to give for such loans; that he possessed no real estate and had no bonds or stocks or mortgages.

Mr. Thayer says he has not yet opened the sealed instructions left him by the dead man. "Pennell left written orders that they should not be opened until the insurance money was paid in," said Mr. Thayer. "I therefore do not know what my secret instructions are. In the sealed package are a number of papers. I do not know what they consist of. I do not know whether the bond drawn by Pennell to secure the payment of $25,000 to Mr. Burdick is contained in that package or no. In fact, I do not know yet whether the $25,000 life insurance assigned to me in trust was intended for Mrs. Burdick."

Carnegie Offers Quarter of a Million. Cleveland, April 9.—Andrew Carnegie has offered the public library

$250,000 for the purpose of erecting seven branch libraries. The offer is made on condition that the city furnish the sites and maintain the libraries. The offer will be accepted. A main library building is to be a part of the "group plan" of city and county buildings which is under advisement.

PAYMENT FOR BOXER OUTRAGES

Misunderstanding in China Regarding the Settlement of Indemnity.

Washington, April 9.—Evidently considerable misunderstanding continues regarding the bonds which China is to execute to the United States in payment of the indemnity for the Boxer outrages provided in the protocol of April 1, 1900. The statement from Peking that the American financial agent, under instructions from the state department, is substituting a bond providing for the payment of the indemnity in gold dollars in place of a silver bond is denied in authoritative quarters.

Our government is disposed to take its own view of the interpretation of the terms of the protocol. This provided that China should execute to the United States an indemnity bond at the rate of exchange provided in the protocol, and it was also provided that the installments of the indemnity payable thereafter should be at the rate of exchange existing when these payments fell due. If the United States, desiring not to avail itself of the loss which China should suffer in these payments as a result of the depreciation of silver, prefers to demand them at the rate of exchange existing when the protocol was signed, that, it is held, is a matter which concerns us alone and leaves the other powers to do as they please.

The instructions of the department of state to its representative in China, who is conducting the negotiations relative to the settlement of the indemnity, look to the retention of independence while faithfully carrying out the engagements entered into by the United States in the Peking agreement.

STRIKE IN HOLLAND IS SERIOUS

City Remains Quiet, but Municipal Employees Have Decided to Go Out. Much Inconvenience Suffered.

Amsterdam, April 9.—The city remains quiet. The queen and her consort drove out as usual at The Hague. The municipal employees have decided to go out on strike. This action will affect the gas, telephone, sanitary and water services, but it is believed that only a third of the men will respond to the strike call and that the military will be employed to maintain the public services.

The proclamation calling for a general strike of all trades throughout the country is considered to be a policy of despair. In authoritative quarters it is believed that the strike as an organized movement is doomed to failure and that the government's anti-strike bill will be speedily passed, greatly strengthening the hands of the authorities.

Meantime there is no doubt that the public is suffering great inconvenience through the stagnation of trade resulting from the strike. There is a rush on the state pawn shops and the savings banks.

The mails are arriving irregularly and late, being forwarded partly by automobiles where railways are held up by the strike. The theaters are again open, the singers and dancers who had gone on strike having resumed their duties.

New Propeller Planned.

Washington, April 9.—Admiral Melville, engineer-in-chief of the navy, has a surprise in store for sailors which perhaps will be as revolutionary in its effect on naval construction as was his famous tinie screw. For more than a year past his bureau has been making quiet inquiries and preparing plans for a turbine-propelled warship. The best experts have been consulted and the plans have advanced to a point where it is thought satisfactory results are assured. Details of the novel arrangements of this ship are withheld for the present, but it is expected that they soon will be made public.

A Well Dressed Man Wears a Stylish Shoe.

There is a vast change in the styles and shapes of footwear this season, says Archie Markham, the highest authority of smart styles: "This season's fashionable shape is decidedly more pointed than anything we have had since the day of the tooth-picks ten years ago. It is the result of a gradual tendency, of the past two seasons and certainly makes a neater and prettier shoe. The celebrated Hanan & Son's shoes for men and the John Kelly shoes for ladies are correct in every detail and the smart dressed men and women this season will generally adopt that make of footwear. There is absolute style in these makes."

APPOMATTOX DAY.

Thirty-eight years ago today the long and bloody Civil War, that had gnawed at the vitals of the Great Republic until it trembled with anguish and tottered with weakness, came to a close on the historic field of Appomattox. Lee, the ablest commander of his time, surrendered to Grant, the Great Captain. The Army of Northern Virginia laid down its arms, and with that surrender the cause of the South went out in dark eclipse. Shortly after Peace spread her white wings once more over the troubled land. The people rejoiced and were glad, and even to this day the anniversary of Appomattox is a day of pleasing remembrance, not only among the war veterans, but on the part of all patriotic citizens who love their country and deplore internecine strife.

Appomattox Day is a joyful landmark in our country's history. It is the one Civil War anniversary day we ought all to keep, rejecting and forgetting all others. Let us remember that we are at peace, and are now one brotherhood; and let us forget that we ever were at war, or sought each other's lives in deadly strife.

HE BELONGS THERE.

Pennypacker Should Replace Stone on State Capital Commission.

Unintown Gossip.
The proposition in the Legislature to put Governor Pennypacker on the capitol commission should be promptly enacted into law. That is where the governor belongs. Ex-Governor Stone is on it, thanks to the great care with which he provided for himself in this matter before the expiration of his term. While there is probably no way of getting rid of him, it is true the people have had enough of him. He set up the capitol commission especially in the interest of himself and some of his friends, and the Legislature ought to undo the setup by giving a place on the commission to Governor Pennypacker, and sufficient additional members to nullify the Stone influence. The new capitol is going to cost millions of dollars. Most of the money will be spent during the administration of Governor Pennypacker. It is eminently proper that he should be placed in a position to help oversee this enormous expenditure.

MORE POLICEMEN.

Each Unintown Hotel Will Now Employ One to Keep Order.

At the session of Unintown Council held Monday night it was decided to appoint one policeman for each of the eight hotels in town, said officers to be subject to and under the control of Council, but to be paid by the hotel keepers. George Titlow stated that the hotels were charged with keeping all the cops on Main street to take charge of the drunks and that the hotels intended to provide for this and let the other police go where they pleased. This will save the borough the expense of hiring more officers and will not necessitate the staying on Main street of the present officers. This motion was passed and the following names were submitted to be passed on by the Council: Hotel Exchange, John Seese; Brunswick, B. Provins; Moran, M. Haney; Titlow, J. Sisler; Lafayette, George Thomas, with James Kissinger as a substitute; Central, Jefferson Lowe.

The privilege of building a one-story building near the B. & O. was granted to the Ohio Lumber company. This is to be a planing mill and will be covered with iron.

George Titlow asked that Berkeley street be opened to the hospital. He stated that the Bierer estate have agreed to allow the street to go over their property. The street will be 1600 feet long and 50 broad. A motion was made that a committee be appointed to confer with the other land owners and report at the next meeting.

WILL USE ATLANTICS.

TO HAUL FAST EXPRESS RUNS.

Some Engineers Think Old Baldwins Will Not Be Outclassed—New Switching Engines Assigned to Connellsville and Pittsburg Divisions.

All Baltimore & Ohio through express trains operating between the Eastern cities and Chicago via Pittsburg are to be hauled by Atlantic type engines. An official statement to this effect was obtained Wednesday. Orders have just been received from the Baltimore headquarters authorizing the strengthening of the lighter bridge structures between Connellsville and New Castle Junction to the end that 100-ton locomotives may go into service on this part of the system. About $82,000 will be necessary to defray the costs. Most of the bridge structures are built to withstand the heaviest burdens, but there are a few that are to be braced. Improvements on the elevated road along Thirty-third street, Pittsburg, have been progressing for the last six months. This structure was erected many years ago, at a time when the present monster motive power was not dreamed of. However, it is now in shape to support the largest locomotives with ease.

The announcement that Atlantic type engines are to be run on the through express trains over the divisions between Cumberland and Chicago will be received with pleasure by most of the engineers. The Baltimore & Ohio has had in service a number of these handsome machines for about two years, using them on the 123 miles of road extending from Chicago Junction westward to Garrett, Ind. Beyond an occasional one, though, none have been used on the local divisions. Those in use west of Chicago Junction are Vauchan compounds, and they glide over the long and level tangents with eight to twelve-car trains at amazing speed, and do the work economically because the conditions are right for the attaining of good results for this type of locomotive. The stops are few, and long hauls under a good head of steam are the rule. It is likely that the Atlantics to be assigned to this territory will be simple engines. Most of the engineers on the through service on the Connellsville, Pittsburg and New Castle divisions have been anxious for a crack at the new high-speeders, and believe they can create new records. The Baldwin eight-wheelers have done excellent work and some of the boys say their records will stand for a while. For all-around machines the ten-wheelers have rendered an excellent account of themselves, but the Atlantics of course are the latest style in passenger locomotives, and for that reason the boys want them. Several of these engines are ordered and deliveries should begin before many weeks.

Six of the new switchers have been received and are assigned to the Cleveland, New Castle and Pittsburg divisions. The American Locomotive company has also delivered to the Pittsburg system twelve of the new "class 17" consolidation machines. They have cylinders 22x28 inches. Belpaire boilers are used.

RESTED SUNDAY.

Pennsylvania Freight Men Got a Longed for Day Off.

Freight crews on the Pennsylvania system each of Pittsburg had a day off Sunday. It was the beginning of the regular Sunday vacation season for them, and that the Pennsylvania was able to shut down on freight movements for the first time in months on a Sunday is regarded as an indication that the freight blockade is a thing of the past east of Pittsburg.

For the past six years the Pennsylvania railroad officials have tried to stop the Sunday freight movement as much as possible in order to rest the men. Whether it could be done this year was problematical until Sunday, when practically no freight trains moved between Pittsburg and Philadelphia.

Barring the unexpected, there will be no Sunday freight movement this summer on the road. The plan is specially feasible about Pittsburg, as many coal works and factories are closed down on Sunday. By allowing Saturday's and Sunday's freight to accumulate the railroad gets a normal day's business on Monday, but if it moved Saturday freight on Sunday the Monday freight would of course be slack. As long as the blockade lasted the feature made little difference in the situation, there being a large amount of work ahead every day of the week. General orders were received from the Philadelphia offices to inaugurate the Sunday shutdown Sunday, and Sunday night freight officials of the Pennsylvania were able to report that no undue accumulation was in sight.

Important Decision.

Altoona, April 9.—Attorney W. S. Hammond, representing the railroads whose wages have been attached for debt, received notice from the supreme court of West Virginia that the Rogers agency has no right to attach claims in Pennsylvania. This decision allows the Pennsylvania railroad to pay to men about $80,000 now tied up.

The Wright Steel Draft.

The models of the Wright steel draft were put on exhibition in the Atlas building, Chicago, last Friday, and attracted a large crowd of railroad men and others interested in such devices.

The invention is a complete success, having proven by two years' service on the cars of the H. C. Frick Coke company that it was far ahead of anything in that line yet invented.

The draft is very simple in construction. It can be applied to any kind of car without changing the underframe. The draft has a cushion of 6000 pounds and saves the car on which it is placed.

Easter Buying

You will want to visit this store between now and Easter Sunday—make more than one visit probably. Going to use this space to tell you of some things that you'll need and for a good many reasons ought to buy at this store.

Gloves.

More satisfaction in a Centemerie Kid Glove than any other kind. No woman would wear any other kind if she knew all the goodness that's put in a Centemerie glove. They fit well, wear well and look well. $1.50 for colors and $2.00 for the black. Next best kind of glove is the one we sell under our own name for $1.09 the pair. Real kid and it fits the hand. A glove that lots of particular people prefer to a more expensive glove. Every pair guaranteed, and all the new shades.

Easter Handkerchiefs

Handkerchiefs here from 5c up to $2.00 each, but we want to particularly emphasize a handkerchief bargain we have here now displayed on a table just as you enter the door—15c each or two for 25c. Some plain hemmed and some with blind embroidery in the corners. You'll allow that they are worth at least a half more.

Easter Neckwear.

Of course the prettiest we have to show are the Keiser hand-drawn stocks and collars. Couldn't find anything daintier to show you than these. Sort of a satisfaction in owning and wearing a genuine piece of hand work. These start at 50c.

Easter Waists.

White if you want it, and chances are that that is the color. Opportunity here for you to choose from $1.00 up to $15.00. Lawn, mercerized cotton, madras or silk—plain or trimmed. Plenty here and all good, but notice the style and the worth on the Wash Silk Waists at $5 and $6 each.

A Suit for Easter.

Not too late to do your choosing, although you must give us time for any little alterations that may be necessary. A perfect fit goes with every suit this store sells.

A Silk Petticoat for $5.00.

Must tell you about this bargain—black taffeta, pleated ruffle, and a dust ruffle that's made of best quality mercerized cotton. A petticoat bargain for sure.

Separate Jackets.

Of course the pick of the lot is the Corset Coat at $18—27 inches long, strap seams, tan covert, and silk-lined throughout, but the Jackets here at $10 are worth more than a look—better than you would expect for $10.

Separate Skirts.

From $5 up to $18—these last in etamine and voile. More Skirts here than we've been able to show for some time. Perfect fitting and made so that they hang perfect. Walking and dress lengths.

YELLOWSTONE PARK

Will Be the Home of President for the Next Two Weeks.

TIME FOR REST AND RECREATION

All Trails Leading Into the Park Closely Guarded—Not Even a Reporter Can Come In—President Makes Short Address.

Cinnabar, Mont., April 9.—President Roosevelt is in the fastness of Yellowstone park, and for the next 15 days he expects to enjoy complete rest and cessation from public duties. He will be in almost daily communication with Secretary Loeb at Cinnabar, but nothing except of the utmost importance will be referred to him. In company with John Burroughs, the naturalist, who accompanied him from Washington, he will study closely the nature of the various animals that inhabit the park.

The president has looked forward to this outing for some time, and he was in a particularly happy frame of mind when he led the cavalcade into the park. Every trail leading into the preserve will be closely guarded and no one will be allowed to disturb the president's solitude. His headquarters will be at the home of Major Fletcher, the superintendent of the park. Several camps have been established in different localities and these will be occupied by the president from time to time.

The special train bearing the president and his party arrived at Gardiner, the entrance to the park, and was met by a detachment of the Third cavalry and a number of cowboys. Major Fletcher also was on hand to welcome the president. Luncheon was served in the president's car, after which, dressed in riding breeches and coat, with a light colored slouch hat on his head, he mounted his horse and made a brief address to the people congregated near his train. He then bade the members of his party good-bye and led the way into the park. Mr. Burroughs followed in an army wagon. The train returned to Cinnabar, where Secretary Loeb and the remainder of the party will live in it while the president is absent.

The president will start on his trip to St. Louis and the Pacific coast on April 24. The weather here is very mild and reports from the park are to the effect that there is but little snow in the vicinity of the president's headquarters.

Dreyfus Affair Being Agitated.
Paris, April 9.—The Dreyfus affair continues to fiercely agitate the newspapers, but there is no indication that the government will further pursue the matter, owing to the chamber's adverse vote. The war office gave out a denial of the published report that War Minister Andre had actually begun the formation of an investigating committee. This denial is taken to strengthen the view that the government is not ready to proceed, but the anti-government newspapers assert that plans are on foot for the rehabilitation of Dreyfus to the point of his restoration to the army.

German Professor Suicides.
Columbus, O., April 9.—Prof. Ernest A. Diggers, head of the department of German at the Ohio State university, committed suicide by shooting himself at his home. It is said he was despondent from ill health. Though himself not a college graduate, Prof. Diggers was noted among all college educators. He taught in several Michigan high schools before coming to Ohio State university in 1892. He was about 42 years old. A widow who is a member of a distinguished German family, survives with two children.

Mrs. Washington a Guest of Honor.
Boston, April 9.—Mrs. Booker T. Washington was a guest of honor at a meeting of the state federation of women's clubs held in Dorchester. Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, honorary president of the federation, also was present. Mrs. Mary Alden Ward occupied the chair and addresses were made by Dr. C. H. Henderson, of Concord, and Prof. Sanford Dell, of Mount Holyoke. Mrs. Washington also spoke briefly.

Bonilla's Forces Victorious.
Panama, April 9.—A dispatch from Honduras reports that General Sierra has abandoned Naomca and it is believed that he will flee to Salvador. The town of Cora has also been captured by the forces of General Bonilla and only the Honduran capital, Tegucigalpa, now remains in the power of President Arias.

King Attends Banquet.
Gibraltar, April 9.—King Edward was present at a state banquet given by Sir George Stuart White, the governor of Gibraltar and the defender of Ladysmith during the late South African war. During the banquet the king announced that he had promoted Sir George White to the rank of field marshal.

Bringing Body Home.
St. Louis, April 9.—A cablegram states that President Ramsey has left Alexandria, Egypt, with the remains of his daughter, who died Tuesday at Cairo, and will arrive at New York on April 15. Interment will be in St. Louis.

CASUALTIES CAUSED BY CYCLONE

Little Rock, Ark., April 9.—Specials from several towns in White and Cleburne counties, Ark., tell of a cyclone which swept through that section Tuesday night, leaving death and destruction in its wake. The record of casualties so far is 9 dead, 3 dying and 18 others badly injured. The towns of Little Red, Albion, Bradford, Heber and Pangburn have been heard from so far.

The dead: Jim and Joe Leggett, Little Red; Tom King and wife, Little Red; three King children; young lady school teacher who was boarding at King's; A. C. Williams, near Heber. The injured: Infant child of the King family; Mrs. A. C. Williams, not expected to live; Buck Neely, Searcy; Albert Kiler, Albert Deorio, Walker Pollard, Little Red; two of the Pollard family, near Albion; Mrs. Hoverton and children, Pangburn, not expected to live; Miss Barkhausen, Little Red, leg broken and skull fractured; Walter Fuller, Pangburn, leg broken; Mrs. Henry Wells, injured fatally; unknown woman, Pangburn, both legs broken; Tom Houston, near Heber, both arms broken; unknown man at Bradford.

The major portion of the country through which the storm ploughed its way is remote from railroads, telegraph or telephone lines. A special correspondent telegraphed from Searcy, Ark., that he had gone over a portion of the track of the storm and that trees were twisted from their trunks and houses were demolished. Thus far it has been impossible to ascertain where the storm began, but it is known that it raged in those two counties, and the list of casualties is likely to be greater than is now known.

Bradford, which is on the Iron Mountain road, was the first point heard from. Several houses were blown down there and one man badly injured. The tornado came from the west and spent its force by the time it reached Bradford.

Wiped Off the Map.
It is feared the little town of Hiram, with 150 population, has been wiped off the map. It is near Heber and in the storm's track. Nothing has thus far been heard from it. It probably will be several days before the names of all who were killed by the tornado will be known.

A special from Heber says: In the tornado which swept across this section A. C. Williams, living 10 miles south of Heber, was killed. He was 70 years old and lived with his wife on top of one of the mountains south of this town. His house was caught up by the wind and thrown down the mountain side, he being killed. His wife was badly injured and is not expected to live. A white man named Houston, living near Williams, had both arms broken.

At Pangburn six residences were blown down and a flock of sheep and a number of cattle, hogs and horses were killed. A large church near Pangburn was blown half a mile.

Forty-three residences and 16 barns destroyed and other wreckage in the record of damage reported. The tornado swept everything in a path a mile wide.

At Pangburn Mrs. Hoverton and one child were badly hurt and are not expected to live. Two of the Pollards, near Albion, were badly hurt. A number of others were hurt, but not seriously.

ANECDOTES OF YOUNG CORBETT

FAMOUS PUGILIST'S FEAR OF 13.

Persuaded a Magistrate on One Occasion to Set a Hearing For Another Date—How He Was Forced to Fight in His Early Days—The Champion's Lucky Medal.

That he is superstitious and that he does not admire handshakes were two admissions made by William H. Rothwell (Young Corbett), conqueror of Terry McGovern and the featherweight champion pugilist of the world, in the Yorkville police court, in New York, one morning, where he was arraigned for violating the Lewis law in giving a sparring exhibition at the Dewey theater, says the New York Evening World.

Magistrate Hogan wanted time to consider the case and, to let the little pugilist fulfill his theatrical engagements and visit his parents in Denver, consented to postpone the hearing until the second week in January, 1902.

"Let me see," mused the magistrate, consulting a calendar. "I'll put down the hearing for Jan. 13."

"Oh, gee, Judge," broke in Young Corbett, "please don't make it the 13th."

"Superstitious about the 13th?" asked the magistrate.

"Yes, sir," replied the boy. "I don't want to have things happen to me on the 13th of the month. If I was up here on the 13th of January, I'd be hounded all the year."

The little pugilist had to wait nearly two hours in court. Lawyer Hoffman and Manager Kraus of the Dewey said that Sharkey and Fitzsimmons had been arrested for a similar offense at Koster & Blaf's in 1901 and had been discharged by Magistrate Olmsted. Magistrate Hogan went to the telephone booth to talk to Magistrate Olmsted. It was found that Magistrate Olmsted did not sit in the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey case, and Magistrate Hogan expressed a desire to set the hearing over a few days.

"I'd like to go to Philadelphia this afternoon," said Young Corbett. "I've got a date to play there tonight with the World Beaters Burlesquers. I won't be back in January."

"I could send it to Magistrate Olmsted," suggested Magistrate Hogan. "He had the case last Friday."

"Oh, gee!" ejaculated Young Corbett. "Can you remember the lines you have in the show?" asked Lawyer Hoffman.

"Well," said Young Corbett. "Seeger asks me if it is war to the knife. I say, 'With me life I'll defend the gal, or something like that.'"

"I'd like to get away, Judge," he confided to the magistrate. "I've got to meet a lot of handshakes between now and 3 o'clock, and I want to get it over with. It makes me tied to be handshaking all the time."

And so, to accommodate him, the date for the hearing was set down as Tuesday, Jan. 14, 1902.

Rome, April 9.—The Italian ambassador at Washington, Signor des Planches, has officially notified the foreign office here that he has received $5,000 indemnity for the families of the Italians who were lynched or injured at Erwin, Miss., in July, 1901.

Goebel Murder Trial Begun.

Frankfort, Ky., April 9.—The trial of James Howard, charged with killing Governor William Goebel, has begun. When the case was called the defense filed an affidavit asking for a continuance, pleading the absence of witnesses. The commonwealth objected and the court, in chambers, heard the objections. The affidavit of the defense was admitted, subject to exceptions for competency and relevancy. Examination of jurors was then begun, but the panel was soon exhausted, and a special venire of 150 citizens of Woodford, an adjoining county, has been ordered to be present in court.

Massachusetts at the Exposition.

Boston, April 9.—Governor Bates signed a bill providing for an appropriation of $100,000 for state representation at the St. Louis exposition. The appropriation will be under the direction of the governor's council and no provision is made for the payment of the expenses of any legislative committee.

Henry Van Brunt.
